LOCAL BREVITIES.

A great opportunity will be afforded Flagstaff and Coconino county to advertise its products at the coming fair at Albuquerque in September. Everyone having curies, specimens of mineral or other products should see that to issue tickets to all who desire to at they are sent in to the fair. It will tend the national convention of the not cost a cent and will help to adver. Caristian Endeavor to be held in San tise our section of country.

Mayor J. W. Francis received a letter yesterday from Mayor O'Neill of Prescott, in which he and the City Council acknowledged the invitation extended them by our Mayor and Council to attend the Fourth of July celebration in Flagstaff, and contained a resolution of thanks for the courtesy extended them by our city fathers.

W. H. Seamon, director of the School of Mines of Socorro, N. M., was bere Saturday. He is an acquaintance of Edgar Whipple and became favorably impressed with the mining proposition of this gentleman, whose property is situated near town. He has promised to away any rock which Mr. Whipple may find near here, and may visit this section again soon.

Rev. Eugenia F. St. John, who lectures at the Presbyterian church to night, is a regularly ordained minister of the M. P. church. Mrs. St. John was for years a national lecturer for the W. C. T. U. and was one of the speakers at the World's Congress of Women at Chicago in 1893: She is an eloquent and earnest speaker and should be heard by all our people.

Many say that one of the chief industries of Coconino county, that of lumbering, is fast giving out and will soon be a thing of the past. There are three lumbering plants in the county in constant operation and our prediction is that if they were kept running the entire year that there is enough timber within the borders of Coconino county to keep them runbing for the next quarter of a century.

The Santa Fe railroad company will run excursion trains from Albuquerque to Los Angeles, Santa Monica, Redondo Beach and San Diego, Cal., st the following rates: From Albuquerque, Wingate, Gallup, Navajo Springs and Holbrook, $40; Winslow, $38; Flagstaff, $31; Williams, $28; Ash Fork, Seligman and Peach Springs. $25; Hackbury, $24; Kingman, $22: Needles, $21. Acting City Marshal Frank Hochder fer arrested Frank Malone and Dan Moore for drunkeness and Billy Mulien for vagrancy. The first two were given their freedom yesterday morning on their promise to find new pastures and Mullen was given the choice of sixty days in jail or to leave sown within thirty minutes. He left. sme other men were arrested Tuesday for fighting and distu-bing the peace. They were given finters and by this time are far away in the direction of Winslow.

The S. F. P. & P. advertises a one fare rate from all poin's on its line to parties wishing to attend the Fourth of July celebration at Flagstaff, and calls takes place at Hackberry this evenattention to the excursion rates of the stage line to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, saying that Stage leaves on the 7th and returning stage tickets are limited to the 9th. This latter sta ement is an error.. Stages will leave Fingstaff on the 7th and 8th for this excursion; the visitors can remain at the Grand Canyon as long as they want to and return whenever they desire and are not limited to any time whatever.

The case of the Territory against Jim Parker, the escaped prisoner and murderer of Lee Norris of Prescort in the month of May, is exciting no little attention. Parker, by reason of being accused of train robbery, his escape from the Prescott jail and the killing of one of Yavapai county's best citizens. has become a character of noce throughout Arisona. The grand jury of Yavapai county indicted him in the early part of the term of the District court which is now in session, and his ettorneys have made all possible dilatory pleas in his behalf. The last one was a motion for a change of venue. setting up as a ground for the change, the bias and prejudies of the inhabitacts of that county against Parker The motion was overruled by Judge Hawkins and a jury was impauelled to try the case.

Don A. Sweet, general passenger agent of the A. & P. railroad company, has authorized all local agents Francisco, at the following rates for the round trip: From Albuquerque, Wingate, Gallup, Navajo Springs, H Ibrook, Winslow, Flagstaff and Williams, $35; Ash Fork, Seligman, Peach Springs, Hackberry, Kingman, $35; Needife, $35; Bake, $34 25; Aubry, $29 50; Daggett, $22 70; Baretow, $21.85 and Kramer. $18 85. Date of issuing tickets June 30, July 1, 2, 8 and 5.

G. H Paine of the Land of Sanshine Publishing company, Les Angeles, was in town Monday. He was struck with the many improvements being made and said that, in his opinion Fingstaff was the most prosperous. and had the brightest future, of any town in the Southwest. He had just come in from O'Neill's copper camp on the Grand Canyon and informed us that a splendid trail was being blasted from the rim to the river by O'Neill's men and will be used to pack ore up from the mines. Mr. Paine took a number of photographs of the scenery in that vicinity and will utilize them in the Land of Sunshine publications.

The large number of Californians in town this week is evidence that it is not only Easterners who can appreciate the many natural wonders of Flagstaff and vicinity, and that the citizens of the Bear State are as appreciative of nature's wooderworks as any denizen of the congested East. The following Californians registered at the New Bank Hotel Tuesday and are here to visit the Grand Canyon and our many other points of interest: George Corson and son Willie, Captain R J. Sirvdale and A. B. Strydale, Los Angeles; Allen L. Chickering and S Divenport of the University of Cable ania, Berkeley; Fred H and H. L. Bixing, Long Beach; J. L. Merritt, San Fran-

DIED.

June 10, 1897, of consumption, H. Phillips of Hackberry, Ariz., father of J. W. Phillips of this place.

The deceased was brought her from Hackberry about a week befor his death. He was so wasted and ex hausted by the fatal disease that on arrival here he had to be conveyed on a stretcher to the home of his son. It was hoped that the bracing air and the sunshine of Flagstaff would strengthen him and prolong his life, mains were shipped to Hackberry for borial.

J. H. Phillips was an old-timer in Arizona, and a nighty esteemed citizen of the Territory. The Kingman Miner thus speaks of his death; .. J. H. Phillips, of Hackberry, died in Flagstaff Thursday night. His burial log and Rev. W. G. Blakely has been sent for to conduct the services at the grave. The late Mr. Phillips was known to all the old timers of Mohave county, by whom he was universally loved and respected. For a vear past he has been in failing health and his visit to Flagstaff was made in the hope that a new lease of life would he given him, but it was not to be, May be rest well in his last peaceful a rep."
